"Presbyterion Church (Rev. J. K. Demanest, p stor,) of Gettysburg, is closely identified with the history of the people of this county from its corliest settlement. The first building was erected in the violative of Bl ck's grave-yard where there was a settlement of the Dutch hadoemed people in 1756. The church was probably organized in 1740; the 'maeting-house' was built about 1747. It was nown as the Creat Conomigo and March Creak Church. Lev. C ven was 'stied Supply' in 1740. In 1741 the congregation patitioned to be rid of their preacher, because 'when Mr. Gaven is broad ab distory invariably a meshada first temples.' Indrew By a silong supposed to have been the first resident p stor, but this was a nervor, probably from the split in the church of the 'Old Side' and 'New Side.' Rev. Joseph Tate was the first ministerial call to Great Conomigo, in 1748, then Fobert McMordie; in 1767 Rev. James Long, then Joseph Phe., Simuel Kennedy. The latter was doubted by the authorities as to his opinions, and he was refused to the church. The Presbytary said he was 'tinctured with New Light sentiments.' Poor Kelnedy was tried for being in Irishmin, in reality, but they called it 'heying too much stress on external and internal holiness.' The ghostly trial was hid. The most wonderful thing about it now is the synopsis of the testimony as it is furnished by the records, of the pursons who had he add him preach, and would, under on the give the substance of his conarks and approants, on the most condenful and dryest does a months of terminy had a to in the characters church and he add them. They could report the text and give a synopsis of his so-a fled reguments under a choof the many haddings. This trial and testimony is a flood of light upon the religious ideas, subjects as many of the times. Among the witnesses colled were Capt. Methors a, S much Medon uphy, fuintin Acmeter ag.

"In 1777 Fev. Robert Budy v s sked for by the congreg tion. To Probyt ry, because he was in Irishman, subjected him to the most rigid ex min tion on the more important raticles of the Christian religion, wherein the C lvinists and amoni as differ; and he did not pass the order l. Nev. John Dick was in charge in 1775. He was the ablest man probably in charge of this church; continued m my years, and was greatly respected. He applied the old log church with the large stone one in 1780. In 1781 the Passistary mut in this then mignificent building. . gro t insident one before this body. Two roung I dies of the congrestion were touts. The great difficulty in the cose was they were both 'most highly connected,' e chiel iming kinchip with eit or protoher or elder. In they were so high in their f mily connection nd influence that the session has no jurisdiction, no to calour it a medirectly to the Pashyteny. It was in the end—the common fem le trouble of te titlin. The young laly was found quilty of number units ordered up to receive—public reprinced. In 1741 minister, as briefly the Presbytory for drunksmacs. Here a cuitted, and the record age: We a mot find couse to july a Mr. Lyon guilty of mything like once a in drinking. * * But in smuch solds behavior had someny eliminate non ind simplers of drunken-ness, nd in smuch a health not a be no appled to all sold proceeded from made, nd in smith the did not not no applicate of all a it prospeded from cickness, we judge that he is concur blo, and put, so an appeared that the sm 11 quantity of liquor thich Mr. Lyon might have dr m: might produce the hove effect ofter his e ming in out of the est one sol into a warm house ner the fire, we do not find sufficient cause to condemn him to deput macro. It the next macring of the Presbyttry this sime lev. Lyon to stried, condemned ind convicted 'for whistling on the Subbath, conduct indicating vacaity of thought and a disposition at variance with the proper spirit of the Lord's dy.

"The good and reverend Black introduced the first temper noe society in this part of the world. It was very mild, not prohibiting the use of liquor, but simply to stop excessive drunkenness. He only could induce these of his congregation to sign, and the end soon clme in, Mr. Black being deposed from his church for his plins.

"In 1813 it wis determined to sell the church and remove to Gettysburg. Dr. McC nughy, long in charge of the church, in communit divine and educator, resigned in 1851 to take the presidency of "shingt nuclear, which place he ably filled until October 1849. He died J nucly 0, 1861. A church was built in Gettysburg, and here the congregation has no shiped since. In 1840 the new and present church was completed."
